
Vikindom is a 2015 Pakistani animated film. The film is about Vikings who come to Pakistan and start destroying everything in their path as they search for the world's greatest sword. Since the release of the trailer at this year's Lahore Comic Con, Vikindom has been getting rave reviews from everyone who has seen it. It has succeeded in getting 'iNerdz Pappu's' attention, who took his time out to write this "review" of the movie.

Vikindom is a 2015 Pakistani animated film. The film is about Vikings who come to Pakistan and start destroying everything in their path as they search for the world's greatest sword. The film was made by indie-animator Yasser Bhatti, the latter only worked on it part time during his studies, which took more than a decade of effort and producing cost him Tk. 35 million (USD 2500). According to the official website, the film will be released in 20 languages, which include Urdu, English, Punjabi, Pashto, Arabic, Persian(Dari), Turkish and others.

The film was slated to be released in Pakistan on 17 November 2015. However it was banned by the Government of Punjab over objectionable content. The ban was lifted after one week. BBC News reported that Pakistani cinemas pulled the movie following threats of violence by Islamists because it depicts Jihadists as villains. Vikindom received generally positive reviews from movie critics who praised its animation style and voice acting but criticized its lack of originality and story elements. On Rotten Tomatoes it has a rating of 64%, based on 22 reviews, with an average rating of 6.5/10. On Metacritic, the film has a score of 56 out of 100, based on 11 critics, indicating "mixed or average reviews". Vikindom was nominated for Best Animated Feature Film at the Pakistan Academy Awards.

On 7 February 2017, an Indian Hindi dubbed version titled "Vikings" was released in theaters by Eros International. The movie runs for around 2h 40min and has Tamil and Telugu versions titled "Puppets" along with Bengali respectively by "Shree Venkatesh Films".
